“ Pops (Brent) has always been a wonderful father figure to me and my children. From day one he welcomed me with open arms and has always had a joke and a smile for me. Your physical presence will be greatly missed but I know you are here with us, watching over us and loving us as we we always love you. Love Shecky and Darrell.

“ Brent you are always going to be with me. What you been through the last 2 months was very hard to watch. i will find out who did this to you. Why they put you on hospis when all you needed was rehab on your legs. the people who did this will pay one day. when they meet their maker. Whose who call them self God's appointed Leader will pay soon. Its in God's hands. And your soul is with Our Lord. Love you forever and ever. Your Loving Wife and partner. See you soon. You are God's soldier now

“ Uncle Brent., or as Grandma Zak would say, "Brenkie." I still remember when I was a little kid and you would let me win when we would arm wrestle. I always thought I was really winning those matches. I'm glad we reunited and had Thanksgiving together. One day we will be together again. Thanks for being everything to Aunt Isa, your soul mate who loved you til death do you part. Til we meet again, Uncle Brent. Your Nephew, Tony.
