“ Para las familias y amigos de Cristina Vargas: Que El Dios de todo consuelo los consuele en estos momentos de dolor, la pérdida de un ser querido nos deja un vacío dolor y sufrimiento pero al saber que ese ser no está sufriendo en ningún lugar : sino que está descansando nos da alivio: Eclesiastés 9:5: LOS VIVOS TIENEN CONCIENCIA DE QUE MORIRÁN: PERO LOS MUERTOS NO TIENEN CONCIENCIA DE NADA EN ABSOLUTO: Están descansando como en un sueño muy profundo. Qué alivio ¿verdad? Nuestro creador nos invita a: Y ustedes e llamaran y me oraran y yo les escuchare. Que La Paz de Dios les de consuelo.

“ Cristina "Maribel" Vargas

The pioneer of the Vargas family who opened the door to the rest of us in the family who followed her steps to the US. Tia Maribel dedicated her life to support her parents and the entire family in the Dominican Republic for many years, then she welcomed us one by one in her house as we settled in this new land. Tia Maribel was a symbol of perseverance and dedication, a hard working woman who never lost her sense of humor even under adverse circumstances. She loved her daughters, grand-daughters and grandson. Though life was not always fair to her, she kept on strong after losing her first daughter and she raised her grandson Glenn with all the love in her heart. A truly exceptional woman and daughter who took care of all her family and then dedicated the last good years of her life to care for her mother, grandma Josefa, till the day grandma died. "Thank you tia Maribel, you are finally in Heaven with Arelis, abuela Josefa and the rest of those you loved so much. I love you forever. Rest in peace". Your niece,

Lissette
