

Debra Lee Hiller

July 4, 1959 - October 28, 2022

Debra "Deb" Hiller, born on July 4th, 1959 in Passaic, NJ departed this life on October 28th, 2022 after a long and brave battle with cancer. She graduated from Passaic High School in Passaic, NJ, and after some years, she received her CNA license at AMG Institute. She was employed at Sunrise Nursing facility as Floor Lead for two years. She enjoyed the stories her patients would tell her, especially the ones that would make her laugh. Her hobbies were knitting baby items, casino trips with her loved ones, and cooking her family favorite, you guessed it, that good ole "Dirty Rice."

Debra often visited Mt Pilgrim Baptist Church of Passaic, NJ where her mother is a member. She later transitioned to Ebenezer Baptist Church of Englewood, NJ led by her nephew Javon Davis. As a member, she joined the adult choir while helping to establish the youth choir that her grandchildren also joined.

Debra was predeceased by her father, Tommy Lee Rozier, brother Willie Ray Hiller Jr, grandmother Azzie Lee Smalley and grandson Christopher Hiller.

Debra is survived by her companion of 40 years Louis "Skip" Mann Jr of Paterson, NJ, mother Ida Hiller of Clifton, NJ, son's Frank Hiller of Dublin, GA, and Andre Love of Winston-Salem NC, daughter Tashandra Hodges of Charlotte, NC, sisters Grace

Jones, Torise Hiller, Sheree Hiller, and Beverly Rozier, brothers
Maurice Hiller, Frederick Rozier, and Ronnie Rozier, five grandchildren August
Mann, Tashon Boulware, Aamazyn Love, Eli Giles, and Justin Hodges.

She leaves behind to cherish her memory a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, close friends, and relatives she loved dearly.
