

Dion D Manuel Mouzone

June 14, 1984 - July 14, 2023

Dion Mouzone was born to the late Linda Jean Mouzone (1996) and surviving father Andrew Dion Manuel both residing in the city of Passaic, NJ.

He gained a new life in heaven on July 14, 2023. He leaves to mourn his loving grandfather James Wesley Mouzone, who took care of him and has raised him from childhood to be the man he was. There was also a special aunt, Darlene Mouzone, who has taken him in and was the mother that he needed here on Earth. He also leaves his father Andrew Dion Manuel who has used his time to grow their relationship and give him love and guidance. His siblings Tazmisha, Tanasiah, Arthur, Tashandra, LaRaya, Markeya, Darrylyn, Starr and Joshon. And a special friend Gina who loved him and was there for him through thick and thin, right till the end of his journey. The loved ones arms that he walked into are his mom Linda Mouzone (1996), his grandmother Lucille Mouzone (2004), and his little brother Augustine Perez Jr. (1995). He was also loved and cherished by his grandparents Johnnie Mae and Arthur Lee Manuel and Fannie Mae and Jim Coley.

During Dion's life, he attended the Passaic Public School System and ended his education at the Winslow Academy where he was loved and won over the staff with his loving heart and ability to make anyone laugh about anything. Dion leaves a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, nephews, nieces and friends who will miss him dearly.

“ You were my little Brother, we shared siblings together! We had never acknowledged each other as “Step-Brother’s”. We always stated that we were Brothers, and would have fought against anyone who said otherwise! I love you Little Dion and I will see you in the afterlife! Your Big Brother Joshon
