

Edward E. Miller

November 4, 1957 - September 25, 2015

Edward E; Miller Reflections of Life

Edward Miller was born in Mount Olive, North Carolina November 4, 1957, the second son of James and Mary Wells. Ed was a very outgoing young man excelling in individual and team activities. He was one of the founding members of the Boys and Girls club of Passaic. As a brother and friend, he was quick to offer help in any area he was able to give his time and talents. Ed gave his life to the Lord as a young man being baptized, then walking and working in peace that can only come through the power of Christ.

Ed operated a successful salvage business often employing day laborers who were in need of income and allowing them a fair share of the earnings; he was not a man that liked to see others struggle and if he could help, he did not hesitate. In many situations given his last so others would not go without.

Ed was a poet as well, writing poems throughout his life using words to soothe the soul and express his deeper most thoughts.

Although he had health challenges from birth, he always found a way to fight and overcome those adversities up until his last breath. Ed was a fighter, living life on his own terms while always keeping a smile on his face and a warm friendly greeting to friends and strangers alike thereby always looking to create a positive atmosphere.

Ed is survived by one daughter Victoria and a granddaughter, siblings James Wells of Hackensack, NJ, Terry and Jessica (Wells) White of Goldsboro NC, Kenneth and Deidure Wells of Hinesville Georgia, Wilhelmina Wells of Tampa Florida and Clarence and Nellie Wells of Hoboken, NJ, a host of aunt, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and many life long friends.

~The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. But thanks be to God! He gives us the victory through Lord Christ Jesus.~
