

Elizabeth Miller

February 21, 1944 - April 13, 2020

Elizabeth Miller was born February 21, 1944 in Thomasboro, North Carolina. Elizabeth was a dedicated and faithful servant of Jehovah who was associated with the West Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses in Passaic, NJ. She was baptized at the Monroe Assembly Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses in November 1978. Every week, she visited her neighbors in Passaic and Clifton and told them of Jehovah God's great promises through God's Kingdom to restore paradise conditions to the earth. In addition, she found comfort by continually meditating on a time when there would be no more pain, sickness and death on this earth soon. (Revelation 21:3-5, Isaiah 33:24) It was her privilege to take part in this full-time before, spending 70 hours a month before she got sick. When one of her sons received a special missionary assignment to preach in Newark, NJ in 2008, she willingly assisted and joined him. She continued zealously preaching to her neighbors there as well. Elizabeth always had a kind smile and a word of encouragement to any and all who would listen. Everyone felt comfortable and welcomed when they were with Elizabeth. She trusted and fully believed all of Jehovah's promises including the resurrection and served faithfully till her death on April 13, 2020.

She is preceded in death by her dear husband, Willie Miller and her son, Raymond Barry Mitchell, Jr, known as "Flip."

She leaves to cherish sweet memories her

“ Miss Elizabeth, what can I say? Between your soft spoken voice, your love of Jehovah and your family it has always been an honor to know and love you! Thank God for the memories, the trip to North Carolina that my mother finally let me go on with you all and to Cassandra sticking her head out of the window and losing her glasses that day. (LOL), you never lost your calm just shook your head and we laughed afterwards. It had been a while since I last saw you, but you were always in my heart and prayers. Rest easy Miss Elizabeth, job well done!! Love you!
