“ Love you grandma. I wish I could have told you that one more time. Your selflessness has always stayed with me. You taught me, through action, we must do all we can for the people we love. You were nothing but a blessing. Rest in peace.

“ We are so sorry for your loss. When this happens in our family we need more than human strength. God and his Son can provide what we need. Please review these scriptures : John 5:28-29 \u201cDo not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice 29 and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, and those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment.\u201d Revelation 21:4 \u201cAnd he will wipe out every tear from their eyes,and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.\u201d
