

Ms. Iheoma I Nwoko "Amy"

October 24, 1970 - July 21, 2024

It is with deep sorrow that we announce the passing of Iheoma Nwoko, affectionately known as Amy, who left this world on July 21, 2024. Born on October 24, 1970, at Kings County Hospital in New York, Amy spent her early years between the vibrant cities of New York and Nigeria, where she cultivated a unique blend of cultural richness that shaped her life and work.

Amy's professional journey led her to the funeral services industry, where she truly flourished. Her exceptional care and dedication to her work earned her countless referrals from friends and clients who were touched by her kindness and compassion. Amy's commitment to her profession was more than just a job—it was a calling. She found immense fulfillment in being there for families during their most difficult times, providing comfort and support when it was needed most.

To those who knew her, Amy was more than a professional; she was a pillar of strength and love. She held her family together with unwavering dedication, always the first to lend a hand when others were in need. Whether it was a comforting visit during a crisis or a simple gesture of kindness, Amy's presence was a source of solace and stability for all who knew her.

Amy's legacy will live on in the countless lives she touched. Her warmth, compassion, and unwavering support will be remembered and cherished by her family, friends, and all who had the privilege of knowing her. She leaves behind a legacy of love and service that will continue to inspire and guide those she left behind.

Rest in peace, Amy. You will be deeply missed, but your spirit will forever remain in our hearts.

Love always from your loving mother, sister, brothers, nephews, nieces, and countless other family members. MAY THE ALMIGHTY God take good care of her.

“ Amy you will be truly missed. You was always kind, quiet, observant and humorous. I will always remember our good days at McAllister and our shared experiences as a resident. No matter what, we never gave up. We became Funeral Directors.

To The Nwoko Family, May The Almighty be with each one of you and may you all find comfort in knowing that Amy is in the memory of the Most High True God. She was a special gem and will be missed by all she touched along her journey.
