“ Hermana you are truly missed and I’m deeply affected by your loss. I wish that I had noticed that you were sick a lot & visited you so much when you had your illness. We’ve had our first interaction back in grammar school & we had a good interaction as friends but we were siblings before that. I’ll be missing you & your memories we had together. You’ve earned your wings too early in life 🕯️ 🕯️

*Miss you already

“ Jessica, I miss you already. You were such a beautiful miracle. Growing up, you were always the one with a very strong personality and I truly loved that about you. You may be gone but you will forever live in our hearts. Until we meet again my beautiful prima.
