“ We are here to celebrate your life\r\n And the measure of its worth\r\n And every single life you touched\r\n While you were on this earth.\r\n We wish to pay our last respects.\r\n That's why we all are here,\r\n To thank you for your friendship\r\n And all the memories we hold dear.\r\n It's been a privilege to have known you.\r\n We were family, not just friends,\r\n And we will carry you in spirit\r\n Until we meet up once again.\r\n\r\nRest in Peace, Jay\r\n\r\n

“ *My condolences to the Barreto families. I'm sorry to hear about the loss of dear Jonathan. Some Bible scriptures that have helped me during times of loss include Isaiah 26:19 and Psalm 37:28,29 which states in part: "Your dead ones will live...They will rise up". And the Bible also says "The righteous themselves will possess the earth, and they will forever reside upon it". Therefore the Bible promises that we may be reunited with our loved ones lost in death by means of an earthly resurrection. This is further confirmed by John 5:28,29 which says "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". This is possible thanks to Jesus Christ's ransom sacrifice. Thus we have a genuine hope of everlasting life in a world without without wickedness or suffering.
