

Juan N. Martinez

November 7, 1946 - May 18, 2020

Juan Martinez was born November 7th, 1946 in Jutiapa, Guatemala. He had so much pride in his country he could talk for hours about anything related to Guatemala. He moved to the U.S in 1980, along with his three children: Domenica, Juan, and Carlos Martinez. He came here with nothing but worked very hard to provide for his children at a Nut factory for 30 years. He moved to Long Island in March of 2020 to be closer to his children and his grandchildren. We made sure to take any chance we got to see him and spend time with him before he parted. Dad everywhere we go no matter where we are, we will always be reminded by you. Whether it's walking pass a park and seeing people play soccer, or listening to Ricardo Arjona, or even gardening, these were things that brought you joy, these are memories we will keep close to our heart. Although we cannot see you anymore, we know you will always be here with us. We love you so much, Juan Martinez, a loving brother, son, and father. May you Rest In Peace dad.

“ Tu ausencia se nota en nuestros corazones. En lo profundo de la tierra, mi amor está mintiendo, y debemos llorar juntos. Nunca supimos lo que teníamos hasta que nos dejaron. Dios sabe que no debemos avergonzarnos nunca de nuestras lágrimas, pues son lluvia que caen sobre el polvo cegador de la tierra que habla nuestros corazones. El dolor deja una marca demasiado profunda como para que se vea, una marca que queda fuera del alcance de la vista y de la mente. No hay palabras para describir lo mucho que sentimos tu pérdida. Los que estamos de luto no estamos solos. Pertenecemos a la compañía más grande del mundo: la compañía de quienes han conocido el sufrimiento. Mis pies quieren caminar hacia donde estás durmiendo para siempre, pero seguiste tu camino hacia la eternidad. Paz y resignación a nuestros corazones. Que descanse en paz mi querido beto
