

Lucy "Cookie" Lowery

June 25, 1947 - December 12, 2022

Lucy Ella Ernestine Davenport Lowery, affectionately known to most as "Cookie" was born June 25th, 1947 in Paterson, N.J. to the late Lucy (Johnson) and Perry M. Davenport Sr. Cookie grew up in Paterson, N.J. and graduated from the Paterson Public School System. Following her graduation she went on to receive her certification from the Business Educational Skills Training Program, Paterson, N.J. After receiving her certification, she obtained employment as a clerk typist/secretary with the City of Paterson, N. J. She remained employed for over thirty three years in different positions for the City of Paterson. Prior to her retirement, she held the position of City of Paterson Co- Coordinator Supervisor of Special Recreation Events.

Lucy met and married the love of her life Jasper aka Larry Lowery. He nicknamed her "Peaches". From that day on she became his "Peaches". Lucy had one child Kimberly, which they raised together. Cookie was brought up in a faith based family. She was a firm believer in Jesus Christ and she always prayed for others before praying for herself. She believed in helping others with mental health issues and assisted people with financial blessings. Ms. Cookie always remembered people's faces and names. People loved Ms. Cookie and she loved them back. In her younger days people described Ms. Cookie as a fashion loving glamour girl with long black flowing hair who loved to dress. She also loved music and dancing and was known as the finger popping Diva. Her favorite artists were Shirley Caesar and Patti La Belle. She was an avid reader, writer, edit specialist and decorator who loved to organize special events and always had an eye for details. She has served as an advisor to young and old and was a problem solver. Cookie loved her grandchildren, her fur babies and she had a special relationship with her goldfish "Greedy" who allowed her to stroke him. Cookie was well known for her culinary skills and one of her expressions of love was organizing events at her home.

She and Larry, her husband of 24 years knew how to throw a party where all felt welcome. She is known for her potato salad and huge piles of meat; especially chicken wings, steaks, crabs, shrimp, pork chops, and the biggest ribs you ever seen. She loves puzzles, playing spades, watching her Soaps and Western programs, while enjoying her salami, devil dogs and her infamous "Pepsi." She was a photo collector.

Exchanging time for eternity Cookie entered eternal rest on December 12,2022 .

She was preceded in death by her loving husband Jasper(Larry)Lowery, parents Perry Sr. and Lucy Davenport, sisters Colene Mayo, Ira Moore, Marion Wood, Sally Burns, Shirley Davenport, brother Perry "Junie" Davenport Jr., sister in law Elvie Lowery, brother in laws James Wilson Mayo, Benjamin Miller Sr., Henry Burns, Rev.
