

Maniben Rana

October 5, 1928 - April 9, 2015

Maniben Ambelal Rana was born on October 5, 1928 in Bilimora, Gujarat, India. She lived the first sixty years of her life in India, with her family. In 1988, she immigrated to the United States where she stayed for twenty seven years with her youngest son.

She was a family oriented person, who was always very welcoming and caring towards anyone that walked through the doors. She was happiest when she was spending time with her entire family which also included great grandchildren. She was the core of the family, that held everyone together, through good times and bad. Not only was she loved by her family, but everyone that met her, instantly knew that she had a heart of gold.

She left to be with God on April 9, 2015. Maniben Rana is survived by her four sons, two daughters and sixteen grandchildren. Her memory is one that will last forever and the space that she left in her families' hearts is one that will never be filled. May God grant her soul eternal peace and welcome her into His kingdom with loving arms. Maa, you will be forever missed.
