

Maria Esther Crespo

March 3, 1954 - May 7, 2026

Maria Esther Crespo was born on March 3, 1954, in Moca, Puerto Rico, and passed away surrounded by the love of her family and the faith that guided her throughout her life. Esther was a loving, caring, and compassionate woman whose warm smile and positive spirit touched everyone who knew her. Through every challenge life brought, she continued to be a source of hope, kindness, and encouragement to everyone around her. She was someone her loved ones could always turn to for comfort, advice, and unconditional support.

Esther was a strong and spiritual woman who never gave up, especially during her health battles, which she fought with courage and faith until the very end. Her devotion to prayer was a central part of her life. She faithfully prayed several times a day, cherished her special noon prayer, and ended each evening with the rosary.

During her younger years, Esther lived for a time in Chicago before returning to Puerto Rico, where she spent much of her youth. After returning, she met the love of her life, Pablo Crespo, who lived in the same neighborhood. The two were married in March 1974 and built a beautiful life together grounded in love, faith, and family.

In 1975, Esther welcomed her first daughter, Anaidelly Crespo, and soon after, the family moved to Passaic, where they welcomed their second daughter, Yasmin Crespo, in 1979. Esther devoted her life to caring for her family, creating a home filled with love, warmth, and faith. She was a devoted parishioner of St. Nicholas Catholic Church and found joy in gathering with family and friends, cooking for loved ones, listening and dancing to music, and completing word searches.

Esther was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Pablo Crespo.

She is survived by her daughters, Anaidelly Crespo and Yasmin Crespo; her grandchildren, Adelaidy M. Colon, Devani D. De La Paz, and Destiny Perez; her sisters, Modesta Ramos and Margarita Lopez; and her nieces, Yesenia Ramos, Mariela Ramos, and Aracelis Vestal Ramos.

Esther's love, faith, strength, and beautiful spirit will forever remain in the hearts of all who knew and loved her.
